

How do you save your story?

WE ARE HISTORY KEEPERS

A FREE WORKSHOP ON PRESERVING
THE CULTURAL & HISTORICAL RECORD OF YOUR ETHNIC COMMUNITY

Presented by the Ethnic Heritage Council with University of Washington Libraries

RSVP by Nov 1 to
rsvp@ethnicheritagecouncil.org

Saturday, Nov. 5, 2016 | 9 AM-3:30 PM
St. Demetrios Hall
2100 Boyer Avenue
Seattle, WA 98112

Free parking behind building, entry at Lynn St. gate

PRESENTERS

Sessions will be led by University of Washington Libraries archivists and librarians who have specialized documentation skills and knowledge of the historic ethnic communities of the Pacific Northwest region. Librarians will provide guidance on preservation and archiving strategies, and discuss how the UW Libraries can offer further advice on community documentation projects, and possibly serve as a repository for your valued documents.

Bring your lunch.
Beverages, light snacks and ethnic desserts provided.

MUSICAL PERFORMANCES

How traditional music is kept alive in three local communities: Bulgarian, featuring members of the Bulgarian Voices of Seattle Women's Choir, with Michael Lawson; Greek, featuring Christos Govetas, Ruth Hunter and the St. Demetrios Dancers; Ethiopian, with special performers from the Ethiopian community.

EVENING PERFORMANCE, 7 PM also in St. Demetrios Hall. Members of Bulgarian Voices of Seattle Women's Choir with Michael Lawson present music, exhibits and commentary on their music tour of Bulgaria, Summer 2016.
