

Ethnic Heritage Council

February 27, 2017

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Rosanne Royer
EHC Vice President and Co-Chair
“We Are History Keepers”
rsvp@ethnicheritagecouncil.org
(503) 871-1023 cell

Free workshop on preserving the cultural and historical record of ethnic communities

By popular request, a 2017 presentation of the November 5, 2016 workshop:

“We Are History Keepers”

Saturday, March 11, 10:00 am – 2:30 pm

Ethiopian Community in Seattle Center

8323 Rainier Avenue South, Seattle

Register now at rsvp@ethnicheritagecouncil.org

Presented by:

Ethnic Heritage Council with University of Washington Libraries Distinctive Collections

Topics:

Preserving paper, books and electronic records – what to save and how to organize them; Sharing and promoting your organization’s history; How to preserve photos and audio-visual collections; How the UW Special Collections might serve as a repository for your valued documents.

Display your project or project by your youth:

Works in progress by participant registrants and student history projects welcomed.

Reserve a display spot now at rsvp@ethnicheritagecouncil.org

Ethiopian lunch provided for $10 cash donation.

Reserve your lunch with your reply to rsvp@ethnicheritagecouncil.org

“We Are History Keepers” is sponsored by the Ethnic Heritage Council, University of Washington Libraries Distinctive Collections, and 4Culture.

###